

Isla Seating Collection

The Isla seating collection is designed exclusively for healthcare waiting areas and patient rooms, either as individual units or configured to suit virtually any room layout. Available in 3 widths: 21", 24" and 31".

Healthcare Features

Isla seating products incorporate the following features specific to healthcare seating products:

- Fully-welded frame ensures extra strength and long-lasting durability
- Field-replaceable seat and back upholstery
- Optional polyurethane arm is field-replaceable to extend product longevity
- Ample clean-out space between seat and back
- Wall-saver rear leg design
- Seat and arm heights designed for easy ingress and egress
- Seat and back foam meets or exceeds CAL 117-2013 flammability requirements
- Limited lifetime warranty
- Nylon-webbed seat deck for improved comfort

Options

- Round or square back
- Flex-back (on 21" guest and patient chairs)
- Urethane arm
- Moisture barrier
- CAL 133 compliance

Construction Specifications

Steel frames are constructed from 14 gauge steel elliptical tubing, available in a silver powder coat finish.

Steel seat frame is constructed of 14 gauge steel and is welded to steel end frames.

Seat and back foam are high-resilience, 2.5lb density polyurethane foam.

Weight Rating

- Bariatric 750lbs.
- Mid-size 550lbs.
- Standard 400lbs.

Shipping

Isla seating products are shipped assembled in one, two and three seat configurations.